Class Ode 1952

Words by Marcia Bernson

Tune: All Through the Night-Welsh Air

Now we part, a chapter closes,
Classmates, farewell.
Golden hours and mem'ries precious
Within us dwell.
We know naught of strife or sorrow,
But before us stands tomorrow
And the dark, foreboding earth
Gives fear new birth.

Where in this great sea of conflict
Will vengeance fall?
Must the crimson hand of battle
Shake one and all?
Freedom must a beacon light
Be to all who seek the right
'Til the bright, celestial ray
Illumines our way.

May the blessings of the Father
With us be nigh.
Prayers upborne in humble voices
Still lift on high.
Through life's journey guide us ever
On the path of true endeavor
'Til triumphant peace appears
All through the years.

Dedication

This 1952 "Spindle" is dedicated to those men and women, famous and unknown, who established a permanent foundation in order that their posterity might create and make secure our country's priceless heritage of freedom.

Since last September the Spindle Staff has been working on what we consider, "The Book of the Year". Up until now we have had all of the fun—now it's yours to enjoy.

Between these two covers are recorded some of the most treasured moments of the Class of '52.

An enormous amount of effort has gone into the preparation of this book. Its success is due to the kind co-operation of the faculty and the student body, and we wish sincerely to thank the Members of the Newswriting class, the Personnel Staff and most of all our faculty advisor, Miss Ryan.

This book is more then a souvenir, it is a treasure chest of memories of our high school days. The "Spindle" is truly yours, for without you there would be no humorous moments, and pleasant recollections. Enough of this, read on my friend and enjoy yourself.

ADMINISTRATION

RAYMOND A. SULLIVAN—Headmaster

Now that we are in the second year after the turn of the half century, we are becoming increasingly aware that we look forward to an age of atoms, with a kaleidoscopic panorama. Since occurences of the immediate past quickly seem remote in the light of new discoveries, we all tend to lose perspective. Living for today and dreaming of tomorrow leaves little time for the contemplation of valuable universals, well established through the experience of the past. However, even in our modern world very little is spontaneous. What we meet today and must face tomorrow is a product of the past. Knowledge and experience gleaned here in our school is the most valuable tool for graduates to use for gauging the present and for planning the future. As the fashion of the coming years develops the fabric of your lives, we on the faculty hope you will benefit from the threads of wisdom we have endeavored to weave into the shape of your thoughts.

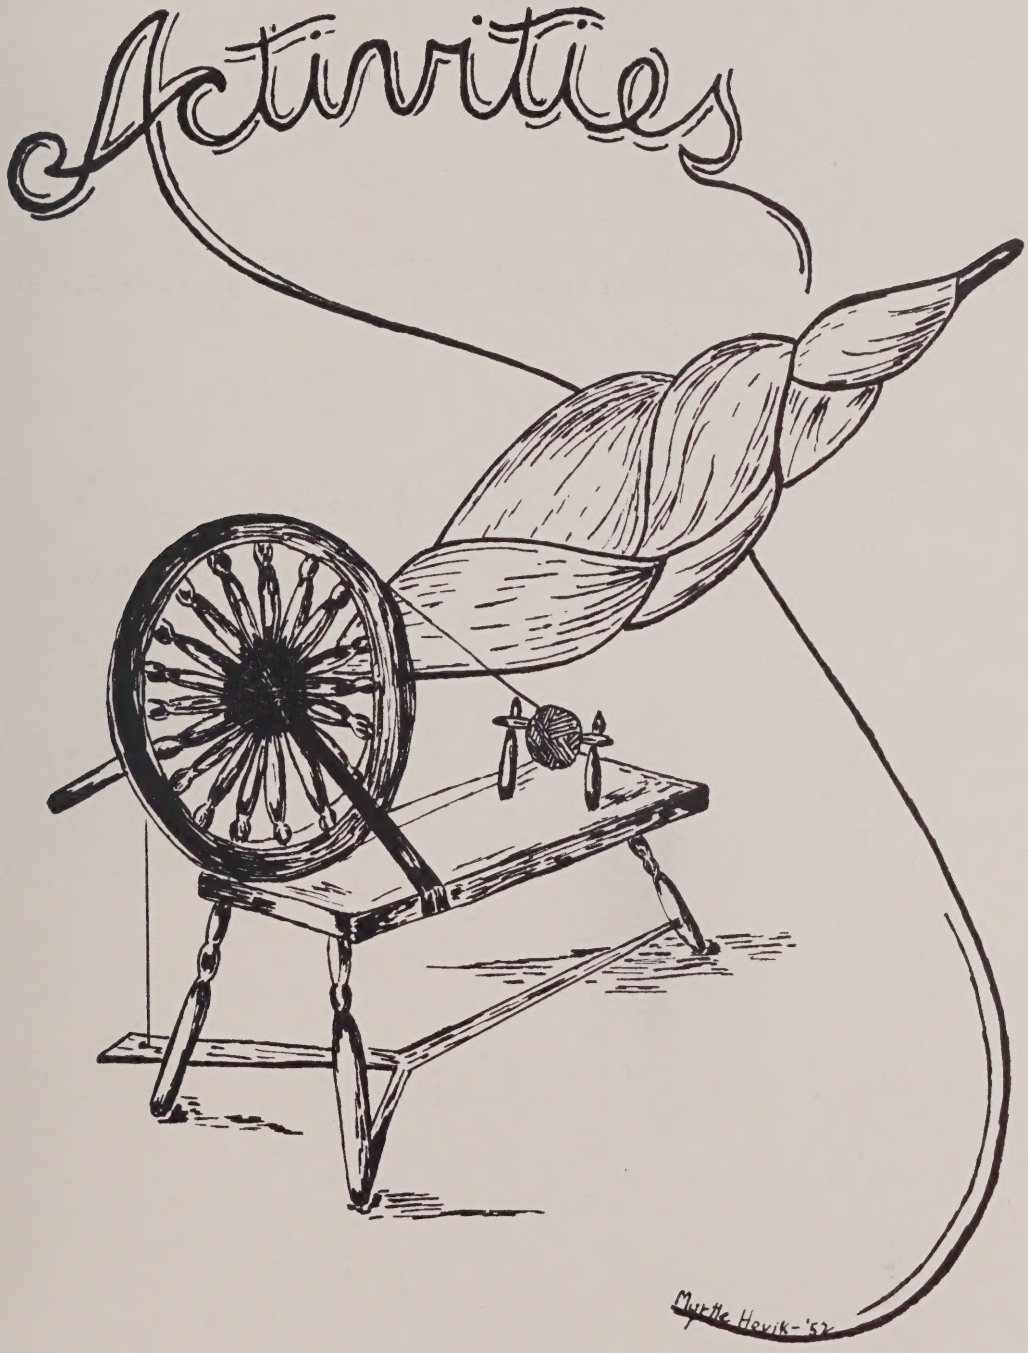
Activities



Stamp Club

Front: Frederick Turcotte, Bruce Perron, Neil Trull, Barbara Davinis, Peter Riggs. Middle: Judy Mullane, John Dow, Stanley Mativiezyk, Vincent St. Hilaire, Mr. Almanzor Dupuis. Rear: Francis Keras, Gerard Savard, Edward O'Dell, Ruth Espinola.

At the beginning of each school semester, the Stamp Club is organized to enable all boys and girls to get together to talk and exchange stamps in order to become better acquainted with stamp collecting.

It has been in existence for over ten years with Mr. Alamanzor L. Dupuis as faculty advisor. All pupils interested in collecting stamps from all over the world have joined this club. The young philatelists have assembled many valuable collections.

The Lunchroom Staff

Front: Sylvia Descoteauz, Jean Armstrong, Sally Ironfield, Joan O'Connor, Carolyn Follansbee. Middle: Edward O'Heir, Robert Trouville, Augustine Conroy, Robert McGuire, William McNamara, Brendan McAdams, Robert Lekites. Rear: Donald McQuarry, Gardner Dowry,. Norman Chadwick, Joanne Ready, James Liston, Ellen McAdams.

The Lunchroom Staff, composed of students of various classes, perform numerous duties during recesses. Pupils are chosen by Mr. Leary, faculty supervisor for the lunchroom, to work during their spare periods.

Floor Masters' Secretaries

Front: Nancy Paton, Ruth Espinola, Helen Theokas, Joyce Gilchrist, Aline Charette, Dian DesRosiers, Sylvia Descoteaux. Middle: Elane Alexiou, Mildred Burke, Leah Garrity, Alice Coleman, Agnes Desmarais, Shirley Rollo, Joan Nealon, Theresa Dube. Rear: Carol Thompson, Alice Primeau, Barbara Mungan, Pauline Hamelin, Ida Kallman, Effie Contos.

"Indispensible" aptly describes these secretaries who ably assist the Floor Masters during their spare hours.

They are students who have taken the Commercial Course and who have acquired experience and a knowledge of office procedure.

After completing a year of this specialized training, the student is ready to take a place in the business world with self-confidence and integrity.

At the end of their Junior year these girls are chosen for their positions by a faculty advisor.

Room 100

Standing: Rita Pearsall, Mr. Harris, Dorothy Murphy. Seated: Ann Louise Curran, Stasia Zurowski.

Perhaps the most visited room outside of the assignment class is Room 100. There, Mr. Harris and his capable staff manage school funds, sell tickets for school functions, distribute locker keys, and keep track of lost and found articles.

Les Pompons Rouges

Seated: Patricia Morris, William Sarmento, Esther Conroy, Andree Foisy, Janice Turcotte. Middle: Vivian Tremblay, Martha Lipchitz, Hank Reilly, Richard Viau, Augustus Conroy, Barbara Gottlieb, Violet Husson. Rear: Marion Reilly, Norma Domesick, Paul Tremblay, Mary Conroy.

Les Pompons Rouges was organized in the fall of 1951 by the pupils of the French classes. After a secret ballot, the following officers were chosen from those nominated by the members:

Prêsident, Esther Conroy; Vice-President, William Sarmento; Treasurer, Patricia Morris; Assistant Treasurer, Marion Reilly; Secretary, Janet Dancause; Assistant Secretary, Andree Foisy.

The officers of the organization are assisted by a board of directors, the chairman of which is Barbara Gottlieb. An able committee headed by Alden Gifford drew up the constitution. Up to date this club has had three meetings.

Supply Room

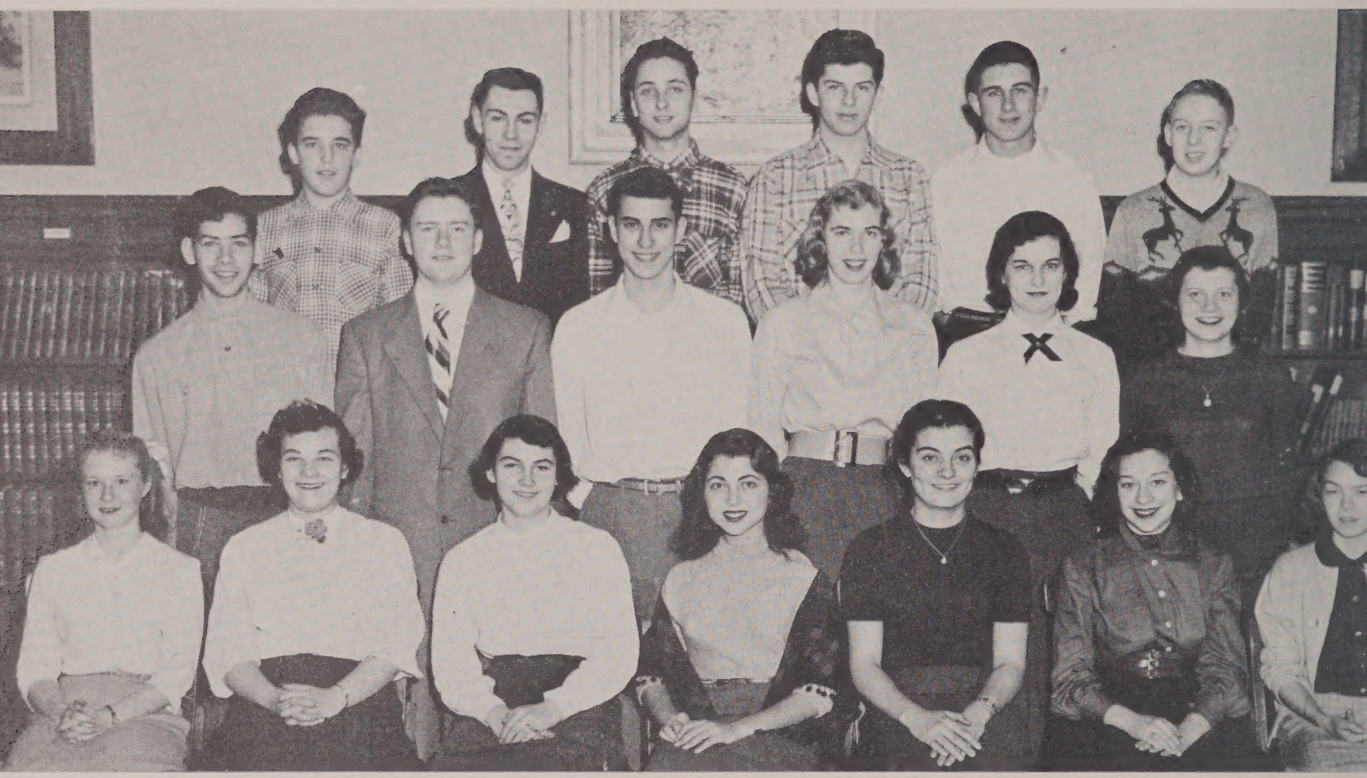
Speakers' Bureau



Front: Faith Layson, Joan Tripple, Mary Jo Killoy, Norma Domesick, Clementine Flomp, Marilyn Harobkin, Nancy Coates. Middle: Arnold Kaplan, Augustine Conroy, Arthur Zantuhos, Marcia Bernson, Faith Carrow, Suzanne Delorme. Rear: Edward Cormier, Bruce Perron, Norman Carp, Ernest Caldeira, Gerald Zarkin, Harold Garvey.

In the interest of the Lowell Tuberculosis Council, a group of students known as the Speakers' Bureau urged the people of Lowell to purchase Christmas seals and to have chest X-rays taken. This was accomplished by dispatching several of the members to speak before many local organizations. To cover a broader territory, Miss Casey, director of the group, designated approximately twenty boys and girls to address the people of Lowell on broadcasts from WLLH.

Although seemingly a trifle, the work done by this group is, on the contrary, of the utmost significance, for it displays the willing co-operation of the school in campaigning for a worthy cause. Representing the student body, the Speakers' Bureau demonstrates that the students realize their civic responsibilities.

Junior Officers

Sandra Derby, Second Vice-President; Richard Barnes, Treasurer; Rita Pearsall, Secretary-Treasurer; Harry Reilly, First Vice-President; Teddy Kemos, President.

Sophomore Officers

Freshman Officers

President, Alice Toupin; Vice-President, Richard La Porte; Secretary, Ellen Goyette; Treasurer, Joseph Thibeault.

Marksmen's Club

Front: Priscilla Cheetham, Shirley Thompson, Carol Thompson, Statistical Officer, Jacqueline Boland; Vice-Pres., Sandra Zapanes; President, Selma Bacon; Treasurer, Judith Palmer; Secretary, Carol Kenyon; Helen Kalivas, Dorothy Dixon, Ann Valkavitch. Middle: Theresa Pac, Gwen Peterson, Ann Klatka, Marie Regan, Agnes Panas, Marjorie Blackadar, Florence Osborne, Elaine Stacy, Bunny McKenney, Leah Garrity, Ida Kallman, Marie Mauchan, Ellen Bell, Judith Powers, Elaine Albanis. Rear: Eunice LaDuke, Clementine Flomp, Carol Larson, Betty Shea, Marcia Daley, Sally McCarty, Carol Brousseau, Arlene Welcome, Lillian Ghareeb, Barbara Vail.

Every Thursday night over fifty Annie Oakley's meet at the Lowell Marksmen's Club to practice techniques in handling a gun. After having finished their shooting for the evening, their scores are tallied by Mr. Charles Dougherty, the instructor, and entered into the scorebook as competitive records.

This club was formed for the girls interested in the assemblage and operation of rifles.

National Honor Society

Front: Carol Mitchell, Laura Coburn, Evelyn Kenyon, Meredith Trull, Marcia Bernson, Phyllis Ciesla, Joyce McMullen, Sally Cockerline and Priscilla Logothetis. Middle: Bruce Perron, Judith Palmer, Julia Malagrifa, Carol Brousseau, Jeanne Drapeau, Eleanor Saulen, Barbara Gottlieb, Barbara Tareila, Ruth Banks. Rear: Norma Domesick, Roberta Williams, Katherine Kelleher, Clark Manning, Esther Conroy, Iris Rentzeperis, Sandra Stoltze, Roberta McNeill.

The four cardinal principles of the National Honor Society are character, scholarship, leadership and service.

The emblem of the Society is the Flaming Torch, symbolic of the purpose and high ideals which are held in every Honor Society in existence.

Being chosen as a member of the Society is one of the most honored positions a student may hold at Lowell High.

In order to win election to this organization, a student must possess certain qualifications. Juniors with a grade of at least 90% within the highest 5% of the Junior class, and Seniors with a grade of at least 85% within the highest 15% of the Senior class are eligible for membership. They must, however, be approved by the faculty council.

Organized in 1927 under the sponsorship of Miss Helen Choate and the capable direction of Mr. Charles Foley, the National Honor Society continues to maintain its high rating.

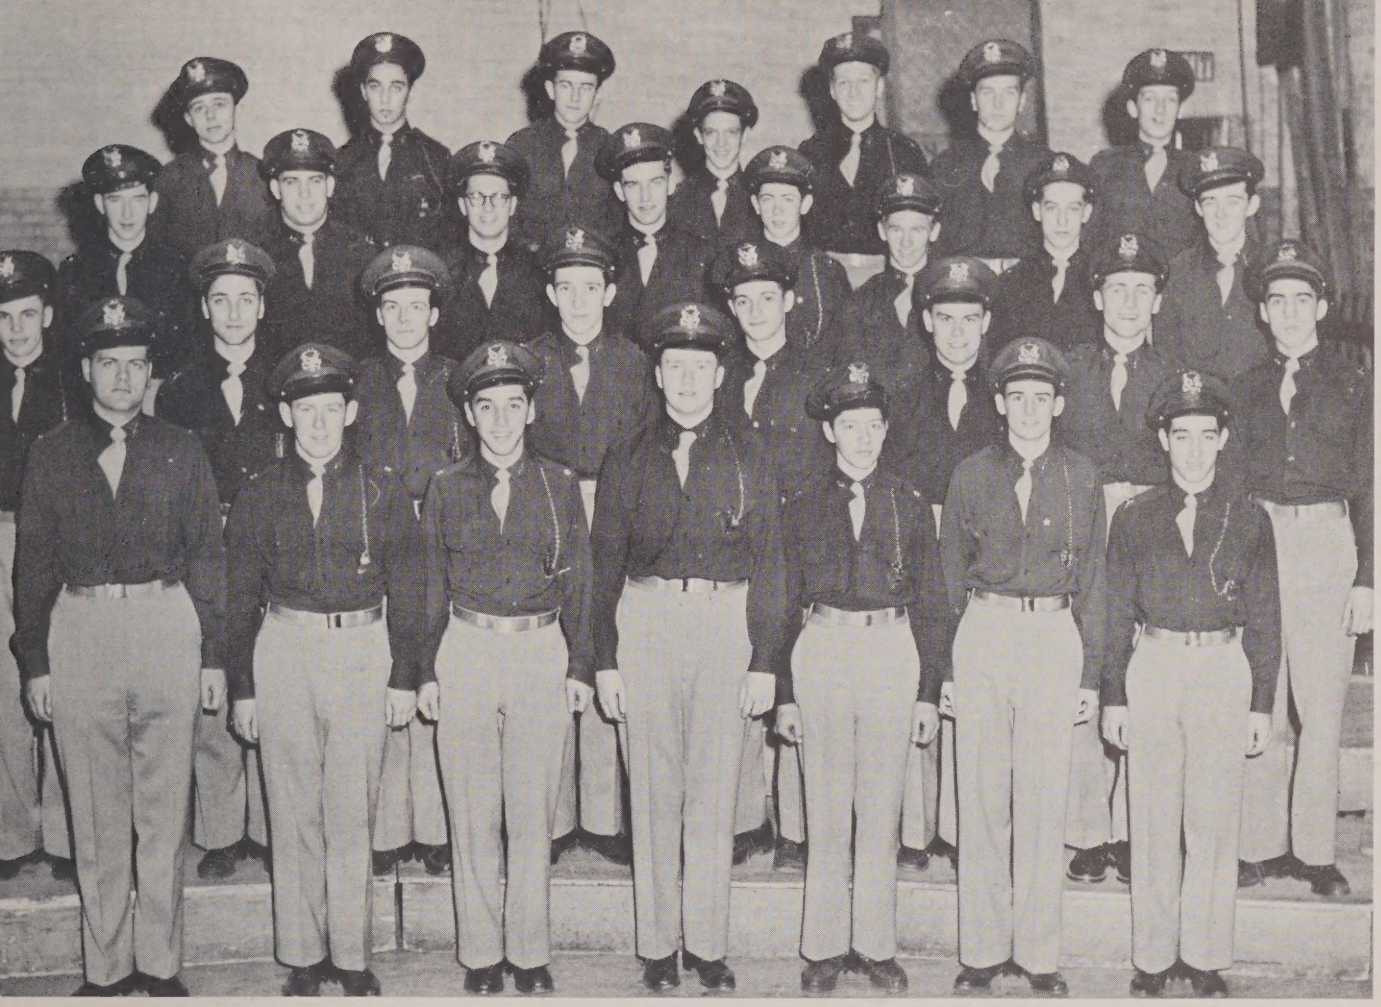
Cadet Officers

The Cadet officers of the Lowell High School Regiment, first organized way back in 1880, still form an outstanding group in the school's activities. For seventy-two years this organization has maintained its high standard of qualification for admission. Only the ablest juniors have been successful in qualifying for membership. The officers gain their rating by eliminating drills. They conduct the company drills in the annex, preside at civic inaugurals, and lead the regiment in parades on Field Day.

The social event is the Ball which this year took place in April.



First row: Col. Vincent Hunt, Lieut. Col. George Landry, Lieut. Col. William Sarmento, Lieut. Col. Gus Conroy, Major David Sanborn, Major Owen Tierney, and Capt. Charles Durand. Second row: Capt. Richard Foss, Capt. Norman Carp, Capt. Paul Morin, Capt. Alan Denio, Capt. David Godfrey, Capt. Brian Wojcik, Capt. Stanley Brand, Capt. John Martin. Third row: Capt. Hugh Drummond, Capt. George J. Spaneas, Capt. Sharkey Scaff, First Lieut. Niel Trull, First Lieut. William Thomas, First Lieut. James Pearsall, First Lieut. David North, First Lieut. Thomas Seery. Fourth row: Second Lieut. Louis Pare, Second Lieut. Mike Manoian, Second Lieut. George Bovill, Second Lieut. Manuel Santos, Second Lieut. Hermes Tsandikos, Capt. John Nowak, First Lieut. Peter Soukaris.

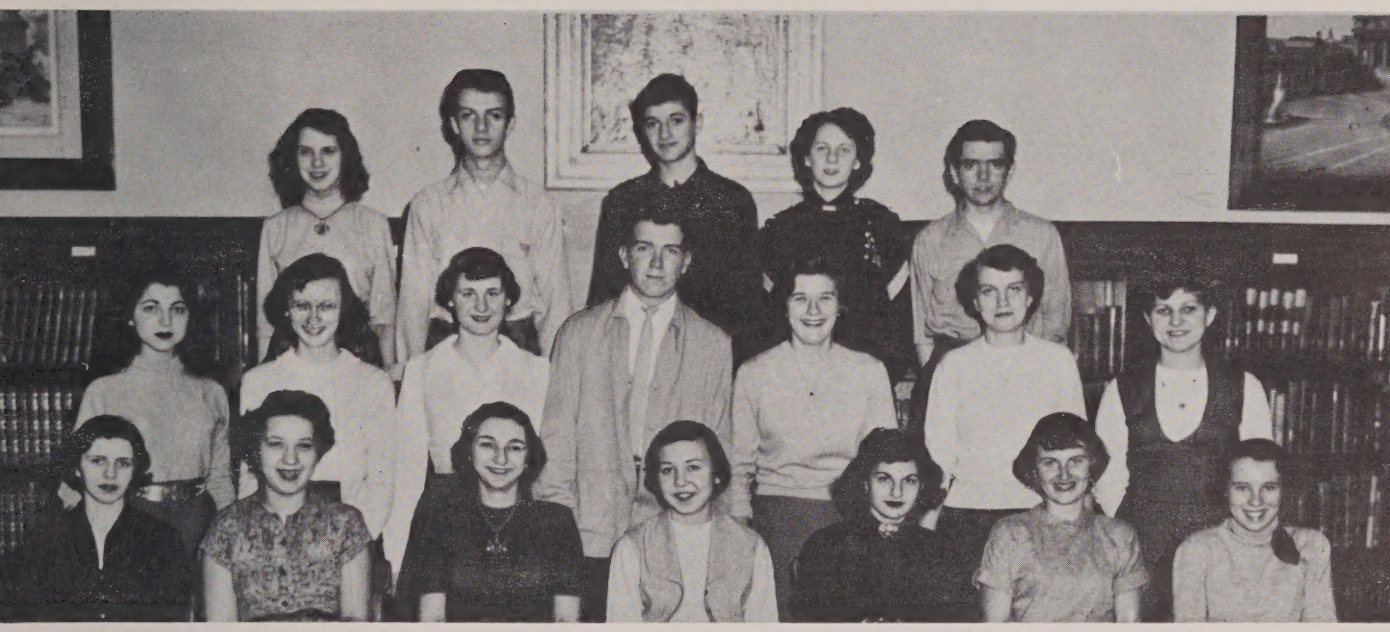
Home Room Representatives



Front: Claire Butler, Anna Harris, Lillian Ghareeb, Sandra Finklestein, Priscilla Logothetis, Catherine McGuire, Barbara Miller. Middle: Norma Domesick, Phyllis Hamm, Carlene Larson, Thomas Conlon, Selma Bacon, Barbara Swenson, Anna Fitzpatrick. Rear: Norma Robitaille, Harold Moshovetis, David Godfrey, Roberta Williams, Daniel McCarty.

The Senior Home Room Representatives were appointed last fall to assist in Senior class activity. With the advice of Mr. Brown, they started to work immediately collecting class dues in order to finance the Senior Social, to pay for the class gift and for the graduation caps and gowns. The social was held in April at the Rex Roof Garden, with music furnished by Bobby Goodell's orchestra, and turned out to be a great success. Many hours were spent by the Representatives in planning the Senior Prom.

The Band

"Music hath charm"

This applies to our magnificent band, which is directed by Mr. William J. Notini. Assemblies, pep rallies, football games, and many civic affairs find our spectacular musicians, in their red and gray uniforms, giving an outstanding performance.

The band, organized on January 1, 1924, has become one of Lowell's finest attractions. The repertoire, with a wide variety of musical favorites, includes popular, semi-classical and military selections.

Mr. Notini and the band deserve the high spot they hold in the estimation of the students and citizens of Lowell.

William J. Notini

The Band

Greenhalge Debating Society

The Greenhalge Debating Society was founded June 26, 1856, in honor of the late Fredrick T. Greenhalge. The purpose of this organization is to revive in the youth of L.H., the desire to become proficient in the art of presenting a strong and truthful argument on any subject.

Since Mr. Francis D. Reardon, present faculty advisor has coached the youthful debators, the society has won the majority of its speaking contests. This student debating group of the National Forensic League, has won the state championship for three years in a row.

In September, members of the society began to argue the National High School topics discussed for this year. "Resolved: That the Federal Government Should Adopt a Program of Universal Military Training", and "Conscription of all Americans in Time of War."

Through Judge Fredrick B. Greenhalge, son of the founder, the organization awards gold pins to those who excel in the art of debating. Not only students of debate and those interested in debate, but anyone interested in any type of speech activity is eligible to join.

Cheerleaders

Basketball Team

Boasting a record membership, the Science Club has enjoyed a program consisting of lecturers, demonstrations, and field trips, delivered by outside speakers and members of the club.

The purpose of this club is to stimulate an interest and desire for scientific study. At the beginning of the year, this group subscribed to Science News Letter, a publication sponsored by the Science Clubs of America.

The officers this year were Dino Vlahakis, President; Richard Viau, Vice-President; Marion Kubacki, Secretary; Janice Turcotte, Treasurer; and Jean Cryan, Program Chairman.

Driver Education

Front: Priscilla Cheetham, Jane Higgins, Dorothy Donovan, Patricia Fennel, Joan Buchanan, Joyce Gilcrest, Greta Johnson, Joan Wing, Charles Higgins, George Laverty, Patricia Bedard, Vera Donaley, Phyllis Chase. Middle: Margaret O'Brien, Pearl Blair, Eunice LaDuke, Jacqueline Vansalett, Leah Garrity, Lou Ellen Bamford, Noreen Whitworth, Harriet Dinmore, Katherine Liston, Marcia Bernson, Irene Sawickie, Mary Wright, Agnes Desmarais, Elaine Alexiou, Jocelyn Greene, Marguerite Tellier, Mary Zdrojewski, Mary Semekis, Miss Rose O'Neil. Rear: Beatrice Grant, Marion Kubacki, Phyllis Ciesla, Shirley Curran, Phyllis Berwick, Ken Keddie, James Craven, William Griffith, Raymond Maciej, Clark Manning, Douglas Townshend, Dorothy Harnois, Joyce Crowell, Sandra Stoltze, Margaret Lambert.

Attention, Teenage Drivers-To-Be!!

Driver education, under the direction of Miss Rose O'Neil, is one of the newest subjects in the curriculum. Juniors and seniors are eligible for these spare period classes in which visual aid, various testing instruments and textbooks are used to emphasize safe driving.

Certificates, awarded to pupils having passed a written test, give exemption from taking an oral examination when applying for licenses at the Registry of Motor Vehicles.

Elevator Operators

Seated: Richard Saunders, Anthony Espinola, Richard Viau, John Gallagher. Standing: Vincent Hunt, Charles Foster, William Thomas, Stanley Brand, Manuel Souza, Eugene Corcoran.

Zooming from the basement to the third floor, saving steps for teachers and pupils are the capable elevator operators appointed by Captain Murray. Ten boys are selected each year to carry out these duties during their spare periods. The elevator is used primarily for the students who are recuperating from sickness, and for teachers.

Girl Officers

Once again, the Girl Officers, under the direction of Miss Bawita Lawler, have made an outstanding appearance at Lowell High.

These girls, chosen because of their ability in marching, posture, voice, clubs and dancing, try in every way to live up to the standards set by their predecessors.

Flashing their swords and marching with the characteristic pointed toe, the officers have once more made Field Day a spectacular occasion. Their ball in January was simply breath-taking.

The Girl Officers have offered their services to many causes, such as the T. B. drive, and have acted as ushers and checkers at both school and civic affairs.

One of the more popular clubs of the High School is the European Culture Club, which has been organized for over four years. The Club, with Miss Bertha Desmarais as advisor, is open to all students over fifteen years old. The purpose of the club is to help acquaint the members with the cultures of the European countries.

Bubbling with activities, the club has heard many interesting speakers. Two very successful parties and a trip to Boston were included in the program. The officers for the year included as President, Janice Clarke; Vice-President, Phyllis Berwick; Secretary, Laura Coburn; Treasurer, Marion Kubacki; Program Chairmen, Phyllis Ciesla and Priscilla Cheetham.

Switchboard Operators

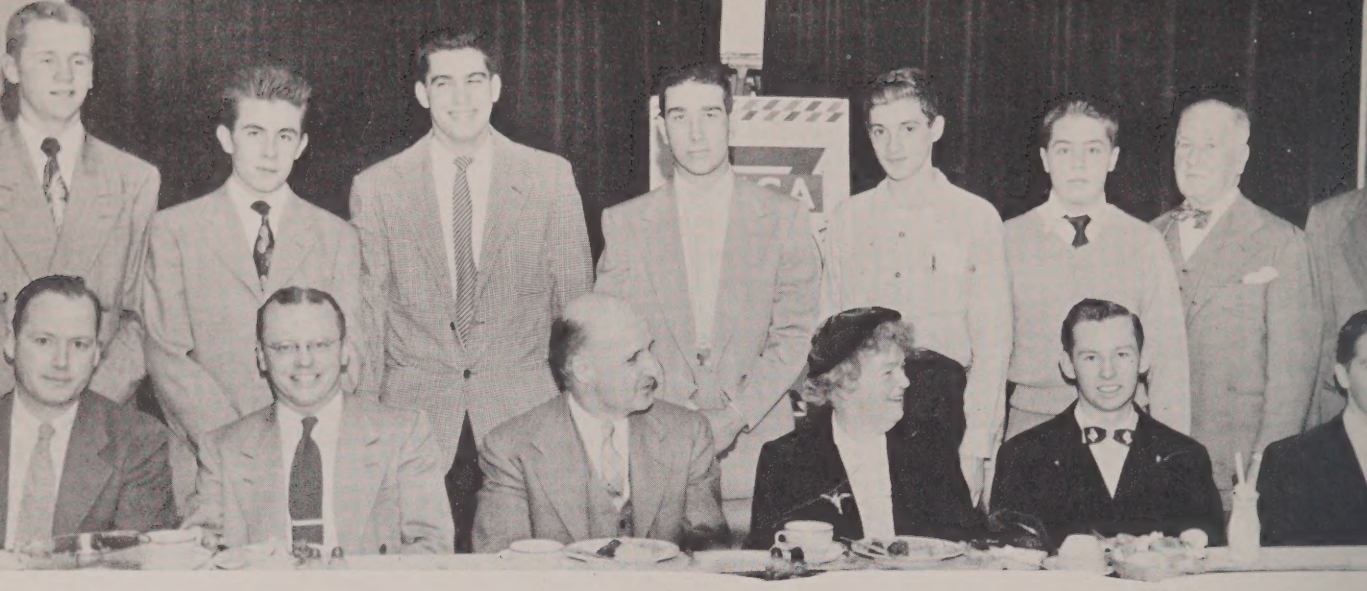
The pleasant voices heard over the Lowell High School telephone wires belong to these lovely girls at the switchboard.

The Staff consists of seventeen senior girls, who are selected on the basis of their exceptional ability during thir junior year.



Seated: Atty. Clement McCarthy, Mr. Paul V. McLaughlin, Faculty Advisor of club; Congressman Edith Nourse Rogers, James Manning, John Dunn, President of club. Standing: Roger Conant, John Ritchie, George Spaneas, Ted Kemos, David Godfrey, Robert Dunfrey, Mr. Henry Nelson of the Kiwanis Club, and Mr. Joseph E. Hardman, President of Rotary Club.

Hi-Y

A group of high school boys, some 40 in number, meeting at the Pittsfield Y.M.C.A. on March 11, 1911, organized the Pi-Hi Club. A few years later, the group dropped the original name and chose the term "Hi-Y."

The purpose of the club is "to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian character through clear speech, clean living, clean scholarship, and clean sportsmanship."

Since it is non-sectarian and undenominational, Catholics, Jews, and Protestants can all be wholly at home in Hi-Y. And they are certainly at home on Tuesday evenings, for, after relishing delightful suppers prepared by the "Y" Auxiliary, the boys enjoy talks delivered by noted men of various occupations. Many of these informal after-dinner talks are supplemented by slides and other illustrations. Advising this group is Mr. Paul McLaughlin, faculty advisor, Mr. Mike Pearson and Mr. Harold Litchfield of the Y staff. The club officers are John Dunn, president; Richard Saunders, vice-president; Charles Foster, treasurer; James Manning, secretary; Danny Sullivan, publicity chairman.

The Junior Red Cross under the direction of Miss Rita Landry, is one of the most civic-minded organizations in the school. Each home room has two representatives and each study hall has four. These students solicit for the benefit of the Red Cross Fund in their home rooms. The project this year is to fill "school chests" to be sent to foreign schools.

Various affairs were held and the proceeds further aided the fund. The Junior Red Cross has about two thousand members.

WILFRID T. BOULGER
Instructor

Leaders

All Lowellites admire this sparkling unit composed of high school girls attired in white and gold uniforms, but few know the history of this unique organization. It was in the the fall of 1935 that Wilfrid T. Boulger organized and trained a unit of thirty members and one chosen leader. At the Thanksgiving Day game in Lawrence, the twirlers made their first appearance and were received with much enthusiasm. This resulted in a regular appearance at all football games, performing drills, solo, and precision twirling. Since then the number has increased to fifty girls and ten leaders. In the year 1942 in order to encourage pupils to develop their twirling abilities there was a championship contest. Mr. Boulger awarded gold and silver medals to the winners. Every subsequent year medals have been presented to the winners of Class A, for leaders; and Class B, for girls eligible for future leadership. Twirling and drilling are year-round jobs, because as soon as the football season is over the girls begin to practice for Music Festivals, shows, and Field Day.

GERTRUDE F. O'BRIEN
Director of Music

The Music Department

Over a quarter century ago, the Orchestra was initiated in the high school auditorium.

One of Lowell High's greatest assets, the group has been under the capable and untiring direction of Miss Gertrude O'Brien.

Students who participate in this program receive one credit toward their diplomas. They meet every Wednesday afternoon in the auditorium to rehearse and discuss their plans for appearing in many civic and educational activities in Lowell. These young people also appear in the school assemblies and at plays put on by the students themselves.

The Orchestra

First: Jeanette Boudras, Evelyn Kenyon, Sylvia Barbadian. Second: Mary Conroy, Pat Morris, Frances Cox, Sybil Megarra. Third: Barbara Gottlieb, Marcia Bernson, Robert MacDougall, Carol Brousseau, Manuel Santos. Rear: John Juknavorian, Louis Milinazzo, Arthur Zanthuos, Gabriel Gouveia.

News of widespread interest to the students is gathered by the Newswriting pupils and published every week by the Lowell Sunday Telegram. A familiar sight around the corridors of L.H.S. is one of these seniors seeking timely information for the "High School Notebook."

Elected as chairman for the 1952 group was Donald Sawyer who in the absence of Miss Anna M. Ryan, instructor, would assume the duties of a class leader. This class, for seniors only, is one of the most active and popular classes in our school.

The Personnel Staff is composed of a group of girls who are elected to it in their junior year as a result of competitive tests. This year, under the direction of Mr. Nicholas Apostolakos, these busy beavers did all the typing, mimeographing and duplicating that was necessary for efficiency in the school. This type of work will prepare them for their future positions in the business world.

Spanish Club

First row: Theresa Pac, Donald Sawyer, Mary-Ellen Moore, Laura Coburn, Richard Foss, Roberta Williams, Priscilla Cheetham. Second row: Elaine Gemos, Judy Palmer, Harriet Dinmore, Shirley Taylor, Marcia Daley, Mary Kenney, Carlene Larson, Katherine Kelleher, Marie Petrakos, Dorothy Hayden, Third row: Elizabeth Doole, Raymond Gauthier, Emmanuel Alcantara, Howard Robinson, Robert Keenan, Richard Mulligan, Joel Carp, and Judith Mullane.

Since 1921 students of Spanish have been instructed in Latin American people and their customs through the second oldest club in the school, the Spanish Club.

With part of the finances, Miss Mary V. O'Neil, head of the Spanish Department, and the officers of this organization presented the members with insignia.

Then too, the group enjoyed its annual Spanish luncheon at which typical Latin food such as "hot" tamales, chile con carne, and Spanish pastry were served.

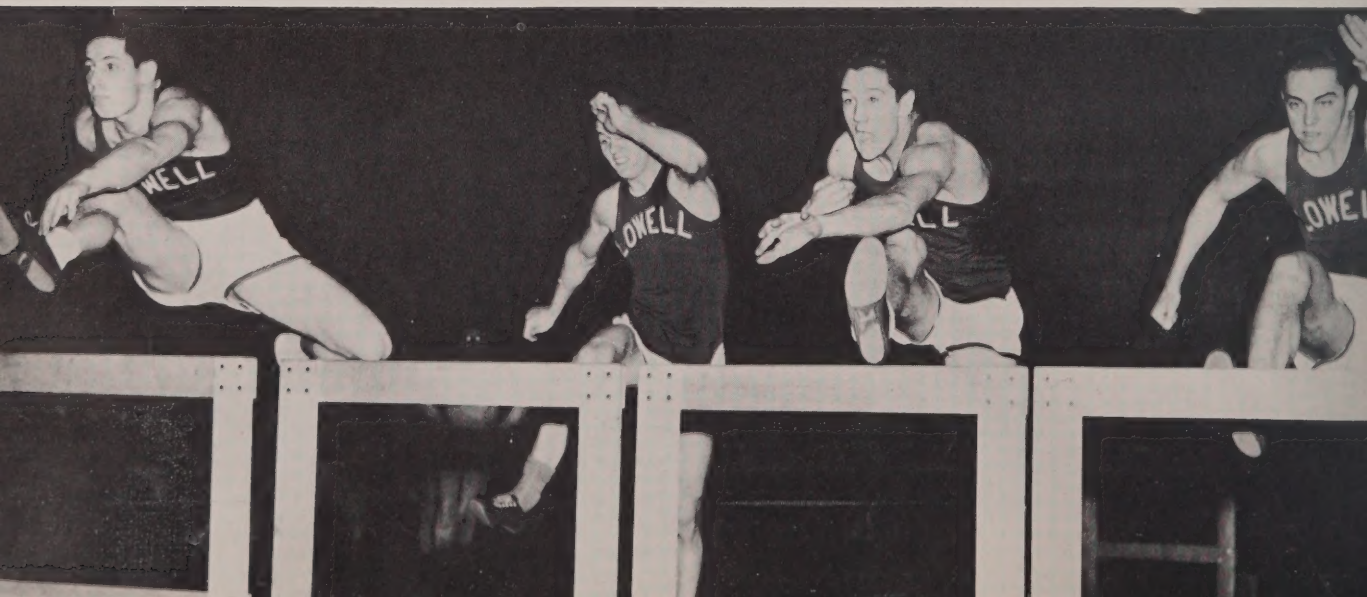
Track Team

The Red and Gray track team under the capable direction of Coach George "Mike" Haggerty once again completed an undefeated indoor season. Ably led by Co-Captains, Charles Foster and Tom Leland, the Red and Gray rolled up victories against the Alumni team, Lynn English, Manchester, Andover, and Lawrence. Outstanding runners during the indoor season were Jim Milinazzo, Dave Stecchi, John Fawcett, Charlie Miller, John Karanas, and Beb Lekites.



"Paper Plates for Papa"

Sitting: Stephen Walker, Joan Kierce, Norma Domesick, Richard Barnes. Standing: Meredith Trull, Suzanne Delorme, William Manseau, Sheila Walsh, Ernest Caldiera, Joan Bacos, Clementine Flomp.

The annual school play has been popular for over forty years. Unlike most schools, which have a Senior Class play, at Lowell High participation in the play is open to pupils of every class. The cast is selected by Miss Mary E. Casey, the Dramatics Supervisor, who also chooses the play.

Teenagers in the play make it more interesting.

This year's play "Paper Plates for Papa" by Kurtz Gordon was presented at the Irish Auditorium.

Review Staff

Memories of high school years are perpetuated in dance programs, pressed flowers, pictures of classmates and copies of school papers. To be found among the souvenirs of Lowell High School alumni are issues of the "Review", dating from 1887 to the 1950's.

The Business, Art and Secretarial members of the staff contribute to the publication, in addition to the Editorial writers. These future journalists are chosen at the close of their Junior year on the basis of their ability in English and recommendations of English teachers.

The teacher who whips the paper into shape and irons out difficulties is Miss Anna Ryan, to whom the staff is indebted for her many hours of work.

Profiles of senior class members, gossip and sports columns and front page "scoops" are highlights of each issue of this tabloid, which plays an important part in high school life.

Tri-Hi

Front: Phyllis Chase, Shirley Curran, Laura Colburn, Patricia Boyd, Priscilla Cheetham. Middle: Marie Regan, Evelyn Reardon, Alice Coleman, Agnes Demarais, Marcia Daley, Shirley Rollo, Margaret O'Brien. Rear: Janet Conway, Eleanor Cawley, Anne Flynn, Arlene Peterson.

Under the supervision of Miss Eleanor Wilshere, the Y-Teens club have been kept busy all year with civic and social functions. Civic leaders and former club members have visited them to speak on vocational and cultural fields. The Y-Teens are to be congratulated for their worthy assistance in the sale of Christmas cards and T. B. seals, Besides personality and grooming meetings, discussions on styles trends were held. The girls have also enjoyed theater and toboggan parties, dances and joint meetings with the Hi-Y.

The Y-Teen members participated in the annual Mother-Daughter Banquet. All divisions took part in sending delegates to the Midwinter Day Conference in Manchester, N. H., and to the Summer Conference in June.
